

National Association of Dog Obedience Instructors, Inc. Presents:

Competition Obedience: A Balancing Act with Adele Yunck

March 26 & 27, 2011

Ramada Charleston Airport
Charleston, SC

- ◆ Adele has earned 4 OTCH titles: two on Flat Coated Retrievers, one on an Australian Terrier, and one on a Border Terrier, as well as having earned numerous High In Trial & High Combined awards and tournament placements.
- ◆ Adele has competed at the AKC National Obedience Invitational, placing in the Terrier group. Adele also competes with her dogs in conformation, rally, agility, as well as field venues
- ◆ Adele is the co-author of the book Competition Obedience: A Balancing Act and the video Positively Fetching: Teaching the Obedience Retrieves Using Food. Her newest book is The Art of Proofing: Preparing Your Dog for Obedience Trials
- ◆ Adele is an AKC Rally and Novice Obedience Judge
- ◆ Adele is an accomplished instructor - she owns Northfield Dog Training with classes from puppy through Utility

Please join us for a “hands and paws on” seminar where you can learn the basics of training each exercise (Novice, Open, Utility), as well as hone your skills as a trainer and handler.

Adele will discuss and demonstrate her training philosophy, as well as techniques for developing and keeping a good attitude and accuracy in your canine partner!

Adele’s approach is to use a balance of food, toys, and fun when teaching, and fair corrections as needed. Ample time will be available on the floor to try out the techniques.

20 working slots will be available, with unlimited audit slots. Fees are as follows: 250.00 Working Slot, 150.00 Audit Slot. NADOI members in good standing will receive a 50% discount.

Registration form & further information available soon at www.nadoi.org/events.htm
